ELIGIBILITY FOR READMISSION FOR THOSE WHO HAD ATTENDANCE SHORTAGE IN EARLIER SEMESTERS

FOR UNDERGRADUATE (UG) COURSES OF THE EVEN SEMESTER 2025-2026 (For theory and practical courses):

2020 and earlier batch UG students are not eligible to rejoin any semester, even if they have one subject attendance shortage.

2021 and earlier batch UG students, except students of the B.Voc program who had an attendance shortage in one course or the entire semester, in theory, need not rejoin the course(s). They can directly apply for the next available regular supplementary examination. They cannot apply for the special supplementary examination. However, 2021 batch B.Voc students are eligible to join the VI semester.

2021 and earlier batch UG students with attendance shortage in one course or the entire semester in practical are eligible to rejoin the course(s) in II, IV, and VI semesters provided they have got hall tickets to write the theory semester examinations in the respective semesters. They will be allowed to write the practical semester examination only after attending at least 75% of the practical classes held.

The 2022 batch students are eligible to rejoin the VI semester. They can register directly for the II and IV semesters supplementary examination.

The 2023 batch students are eligible to rejoin the II semester, provided they choose one additional subject in addition to the two major subjects they were originally admitted to. The two major subjects must be part of the combination of three major subjects offered in the academic year 2025-26. Those seeking readmission to the IV semester will be required to register for theory supplementary examinations in the additional subject of I, II and III in their respective semester, however they should attend practical classes for I, II and III semesters in the additional subject after completing their 6th semester, and must fulfill all necessary requirements to be eligible for the end-semester examinations.

The 2024 batch students are eligible to rejoin 2nd Semester.

FOR POSTGRADUATE COURSES OF THE EVEN SEMESTER 2025-2026 (For theory and practical courses):

2021 and earlier batch PG students are not eligible to rejoin any semester, even if they have one subject attendance shortage.

2022 batch PG students are eligible to rejoin the IV semester either for the entire semester or for a course in that semester. 2022 batch PG students are eligible to rejoin for a course in the II semester but not for the semester.

ST JOSEPH'S UNIVERSITY

2023 batch PG students are eligible to rejoin II and IV semesters either for the entire semester or for a course in that semester.

2024 batch students are eligible to rejoin the II semester.

IMPORTANT NOTE: As per the resolution passed in the Academic Council 4.8 dated 2nd April 2024, it is resolved to allow students with attendance shortages in one subject to be readmitted only after the VI semester of their Bachelor's program or IV semester of their Master's program. However, if a student is free from the regular semester schedule, they may be readmitted in that semester to fulfill the requirement for the subject with an attendance shortage.
