REGISTRATION EXPRESSING WILLINGNESS TO ATTEND THE SUMMER COURSE

This notice is for UG students who have back papers in both odd and even semesters. You are directed to register your willingness to enroll in a summer course to clear your back papers.

Registration Process:

1. Use the Google form link provided below to indicate your willingness to enroll in a course.
2. You can register your willingness for more than one course, but can enroll for only one core course (including Language and General English) and one non-core course (IGNITORS, HRD, Theology, Foundation course, Skill development course).

Important Notes:

Registering your willingness does not guarantee that the course will be offered in summer.

The administration will decide on the courses to be offered based on the number of students and notify you in the first week of February.

Students who were denied hall tickets for a single course and students who wish to improve their CA marks can also complete the course in this summer programme.

Benefits:

6th semester students having one back paper in 1,2,3 or 4th can clear the course in summer and this will help them save one academic year.

Those who were denied hall ticket for a single subject can save one academic year by enrolling for the course in summer, if it is offered.

Students can improve their CA marks.

Course Details:

Classes will be conducted for a single course.

Examinations will be conducted immediately after the classes. (Total 12 days)

Please find the registration link and course details on the next page.

The following courses are not offered during summer:

All PG courses ; Practical courses, Dissertation, Project, Viva Voce and Thesis
