Please note that the dates and times must be written on the hall ticket by the HODs. This information has to be registered in the Examination section help desk.

Note: Candidates applying for supplementary examination offline must submit the photocopy of marks card of the last examination written for the course(s) applied

Syllabus for the supplementary examination:

As per the rules of the college, if a syllabus has been changed for a course, (indicated by the last two digits in the code number) the candidate will get two additional chances to write the examination in the old syllabus. (This is calculated from the year in which the syllabus was changed). If the course was discontinued from the given semester, the candidate will get three additional chances to write the examination in the old syllabus. For some special cases, one more chance in the old syllabus will be given and the details will be posted on the University website in the last week of March 2025. 2 and 4 semester UG supplementary non-NEP batch students will continue getting the Question paper in the same syllabus and pattern as per 2021 even semester examination.

UG candidates having attendance shortage in one subject in the 2nd semester

All 2nd semester UG NEP candidates (Except B.Voc.) denied a hall ticket for one subject due to the shortage in attendance for a given course, are allowed to write the examination without attending the classes for the same. This is due to the implementation of the SEP.

4th Semester Term paper: The last date to submit the term paper to the Guide is 24th March 2025. The candidates must apply for the supplementary examination online before submitting the Term paper.
